

I'm appalled at Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. I find it interesting that CBS is an affiliate of Sinclair which did not air a movie "The Reagans" and sent it the cable channel Showtime. It seems to me there is a double standard being applied.

Sinclair is obligated by law to serve the public interest. When large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy.

I'm asking you, the FCC to do something about this. If the FCC is bipartisan, you will hold the same standard given to the movie "The Reagans"

Thank you
